

We're proud of you, say the Yeovil fans

YEOVIL v LIVERPOOL

■ Well done Yeovil Town! You've nothing to be ashamed of – you played well.

That penalty should never have been given. Don't despair – you'll get there one day. You make Yeovil (and the rest of Somerset) proud! 'An old Yeovillian!'

hoped they would do me proud, and even though they lost they did do me proud.

I thought that they were the better side through the first half, and still had some fight left in them in the second half.

I agree that facing Liverpool was tough, however the team did not chicken out, but instead stood up to them with some great footballing skills, so I would like to take this opportunity to tell the team how well they did.
